

Application for Paradorparp International House

The mission of Paradorparp International House is to provide a safe, secure, comfortable, and healthy living community for residents, and to promote an active residential life program which provides a broad international perspective for students, faculty and staff within a respectful and intercultural residential learning community at Payap University. Payap University's policy requires all first year international programs students to live in the Paradorparp International House (PIH).

Fill in your responses carefully, as they will affect your room assignment. Incomplete responses will delay the processing of your choices. You do not need to be admitted to Payap University's academic program before submitting your Paradorparp International House Application form.
