

Life Long Learning Program Payap University Presents

Aging Pioneers: Imagining New Possibilities for Our Future Years

Carl Samuels will lead participants in a series of dialogues through which we will learn from each other.

July 9, 23, August 6, 20

Mondays 1:00 to 4:00pm

AT: Sadudee Room, Kaewnawarat Campus, Payap University

What makes life worth living? What gives you meaning and joy? What are you looking forward to? What fears do you have about getting sick or medical care?

This course will give you the opportunity to answer questions like these, and learn how you can make conscious choices, expand your imagination and live life more fully.

Carl Samuels has been guiding and supporting cancer patients and people at end of life since Cancer Connect Chiang Mai formed 8 years ago. During his career, Carl conducted peer learning programs in the US for 25 years.

Cost: 1,000 Baht.
